Psalm 27

This guide is to help you facilitate discussion with your Small Group. Use it as a resource to lead your group in discovering and owning the truths of God's Word. There may be questions you do not want to use and there may be instances where you just want to focus on a particular point or truth. Some questions may bring out emotions and cause people to dwell on their relationship with God. Your role is to facilitate this experience not to complete the discussion guide. Use this as a flexible teaching tool not a rigid teaching task list.

Psalm 27...

This psalm is ascribed to David, evidently written in a time of danger. It may have been prompted by the help provided by Ahimelech the priest, and the opposition of Doeg the Edomite, who saw David at the tabernacle and later reported him to Saul (cf. 1Sa 21:1-10; 22:9). This was also a time when David sought protection for his parents (cf. 1 Sam 22:3) which may have left David feeling abandoned.

The first part of the psalm expresses his confident trust in the LORD for blessings received in the past, and his desire to dwell in the house of the LORD who will protect him in the future (1-6). In the second part David offers an anxious plea for God's mercy and deliverance from his enemies (7-10). It ends with a confession that he would have lost heart without faith in God's goodness, and an exhortation to wait on the Lord for strength and courage of heart (11-14).

Confidence in the Lord

David expressed great confidence in the Lord. The Lord was his light, salvation and stronghold, therefore he did not fear what his enemies could do to him. He could have fearless trust in the Lord. David further expressed his confidence in the Lord by his longing to dwell in His house. He would love to abide there all his life, to enjoy His beauty and to seek Him there in the temple. To dwell in the presence of the Lord would add to David's security. The Lord would keep him safe in the day of trouble and establish him securely in danger. Consequently he would triumph over his enemies and joyfully sing praises to the Lord. Perhaps the idea of safety in the sanctuary, where his enemies could not reach him, caused David here to meditate on the Lord's protection. Read Psalm 27:1-6

Earnest Prayer in Faith

Apparently the Lord was not promptly granting David’s request for protection. He asked the Lord not to forsake him since he was in great need. God had instructed the righteous to pray and that is what David was doing. Therefore, God ought not refuse to help him. David also affirmed that he was the servant of the Lord, and that the Lord had been his Helper. In light of this David begged the Lord not to reject him. His prayer was strengthened by the knowledge that the Lord would not forsake him, even if his parents did. Read Psalm 27:7-10

- How does this passage relate to the previous passage (Psalm 27:1-6)?
- Why did David hope for the Lord to hear his prayer and have mercy on him?
- Who would take care of David when he was forsaken by his parents?
- Why do you think David changes his tone from verses 7-9 to verse 10?

Wait for the Lord

David asked God to teach him the way to go because his enemies were lying in wait for him. He asked not to be turned over to his enemies, who were false witnesses sworn to destroy him. In the end, however, David’s confidence resurfaces; he rejoiced in the prospect of waiting for the Lord. David was confident that he would survive and remain alive to see God’s blessing. Therefore he strengthened himself to wait for the Lord’s deliverance. Read 27:11-14
